A Letter from our pastor, Rev. RUGGIERO Dibenedetto

My dear parishioners of Saint Thomas Aquinas, it is time for me to leave this beautiful and diversified community of faith in which I have spent the last seven years of my priestly service as a pastor. Thank you for this privilege and for this positive experience that has allowed me to grow spiritually in many ways and render me the man and the priest I am today. I would like to give thanks to God for all of his blessings, sometimes unexpected and for this more appreciated. I am grateful for all of your assistance and support and I apologize if in any way or moment, I offended or wronged you. For certain, the experience in this parish and with my staff has been very positive and will stay in my heart and in my prayers even though along the way, there have been some challenges. I recognize that this last year and a half has been quite different and will be unforgettable in our lives and relations, but we are here and looking forward to better and free days, gatherings, celebrations, work, and travel! Throughout the years, I have tried to promote unity in the diversity of this community and together, we have been able to accomplish quite a few undertakings that will remain here for the benefit of yours and future generations. I leave a church in sound financial shape even though along the years, we managed to enrich and update the heat/ac machines and system. We changed all of the lights in both the church and the house to LED. We installed the fire system everywhere. We repaired part of the rectory roof. We implemented the cameras system and computer technology. We accomplished so many projects and this was done through our regular collections and extra activities and events such as: the barbecues, trips, pilgrimages, feasts and parties. Presently, I am thankful to the Lord and the Archbishop for their trust and confidence as I prepare myself for this new step in my journey as a pastor of Our Lady of the Airways in Mississauga. Thank you again and while we both continue our journey, let us continue to pray for each other.

God Bless!
