From the Pastor's Desk!

Dear parishioners of St. Thomas Aquinas,

May I officially thank you for warmly welcoming Fr. Peter and I to your 'family of faith'. We have really felt at home since we kicked off our ministry since last June 29th.

In case you are wondering whether the last month has been a jolly ride for your two new priests, the answer is no! While we have enjoyed the 'human resources' we have been endowed with in each and everyone of you, brothers and sisters, we still recognize that we have plenty of work to do for God's glory and mutual upbuilding.

Hence, our first and, your first task, is to encourage one another to come to Mass, take advantage of the other sacraments, step up and resume our ministries as active members of the Body of Christ. Now, that might sound like multiple tasks. But it is actually a single task: Be there! Jesus wants a personal relationship with you and me. So, we cannot come every now and then or, delegate others. Here is a beautiful line to reflect on: "You are the light of the world" (Matthew 5:14), so "let your light shine". God bless you, my dear parishioners, as resume practicing your faith!

Your pastor, Fr. Patrick Ezimora CCE (pastor@stthomasaquinasparish.com)
